

Terms and Conditions

The Girls' IT Bootcamp is organised by the European Central Bank (ECB) for female school students. The goal of the bootcamp is to give school age girls holding EU nationality an insight into the different IT profiles at the ECB and inspire them to consider future studies and a career in IT.

The Girls' IT Bootcamp is subject to the terms and conditions published at www.ecb.europa.eu.

The bootcamp will be held in English at the ECB's premises in Frankfurt am Main, Germany. It is open to female school students aged between 11 and 17 years at the time of registration, who can communicate (write/read) in English at an advanced level and are EU nationals. The bootcamp is open only to girls who are participating for the first time. No previous experience in or knowledge of coding is needed.

The parents/legal guardian of students who wish to participate in the bootcamp must fill in the registration form made available by the ECB and accept the applicable terms and conditions.

All the details about the Girls' IT Bootcamp event and the registration are available on the ECB's website (www.ecb.europa.eu) and on the "Girls' Day" website (<https://www.girls-day.de/>).

Places will be offered by random draw to those who have registered successfully and who meet the conditions above<sup>1</sup>. The ECB has full discretion as to the final selection of participants.

Participation in the bootcamp is subject to (i) acceptance of the terms and conditions, (ii) acceptance of the privacy statement, and (iii) registration of the student's personal data in the registration form. All data must be valid at the time of it being provided to the ECB.

Students who wish to participate in the bootcamp must have a valid ID or passport with them on both days of the event.

The ECB is not responsible for incomplete, or incorrectly submitted or delayed registrations and documentation.

Only the parents/legal guardian of the girls selected to take part will need to fill in and sign the personal data consent for video and photography for minors. Documentation will be provided by the ECB once the selection procedure has been finalised.

By confirming their participation and filling out and signing the required documents, participants' parents/legal guardian agree to the publication of the photos and videos of the

---

<sup>1</sup> Each girl will be assigned a number at random, and the draw will select the 30 participants.

EUROPEAN CENTRAL BANK

EUROSYSTEM

participants on the ECB's website and/or to the announcement of those names at public events. Participants may be photographed and/or filmed at the event and the resulting photos/videos may be published on the internet, on social media or in other media.

All participants will be awarded certificates and gifts in person at the event. All participants must respect the ECB House Rules which can be found on the ECB's website (www.ecb.europa.eu).

The ECB reserves the right to postpone, interrupt or cancel the bootcamp partially or entirely. In this case, the ECB will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may arise from the postponement, interruption or cancellation.

Please carefully read the Privacy Statement linked here.

By submitting the registration form, the parents/legal guardians of participants give their consent for their and their child's personal data to be processed, for their child to be on the ECB premises for the duration of the event without their presence, for photos and videos from the bootcamp to be published, and they confirm that they have read and consented to the present Terms and Conditions.

©2024 European Central Bank